

STUDENT SUBMISSION TO SURVEY, PERSONAL ANALYSIS, OR EVALUATIONS OF SCHOOL CURRICULUM

No student shall be required without prior written consent of the student's parent or guardian, or prior consent of a student if the student is an adult or is emancipated to submit to a survey, a personal analysis, or an evaluation not directly related to academic instruction which reveals information concerning:

- (1) political affiliations;
- (2) religious beliefs or practices;
- (3) mental or psychological conditions that may embarrass the student or his/her family;
- (4) sexual behavior and attitudes;
- (5) illegal, anti-social, self-incriminating or demeaning behavior;
- (6) critical appraisals of other individuals with whom the student has a close family relationship;
- (7) legally recognized privileged or confidential relationships, including a relationship with a lawyer, physician, or minister; or
- (8) income (except as required by law to determine eligibility for participation in a program or for receiving financial assistance under such program).

Any consent form used in compliance with this policy must state the contents and nature of the personal analysis survey, or evaluation.
